New Partners in Duns & Galashiels

Following a period of internal change, which has included the retirements in recent times of two of our longest serving partners, Alan Lamb and Andrew Jarosz, we are now delighted to announce the assumption, with effect from 1st September 2012, of two of our former Associates, Heather Stewart and Roddy McGeoch, as Partners of the firm.

We view the fact that these two highly regarded lawyers have each decided to commit their long-term futures to Iain Smith & Partners as truly excellent news - not only for our firm but also for our clients, whom we look forward to continuing to serve to the very best of our abilities.
